To Everyone on Mother's Day

Today, I'm thinking of those of you who are mothers. There's something to say concerning the attention and care a mother gives to her child or children. I often watch and listen in amazement, as I've watched on from the "sidelines!" Yes, I've been taking notes: Motherhood is a full-time "position;" a profession no women, ever, retires from. Even as I turned sixty and my mother could no longer communicate verbally, I knew I was loved, I saw it in her eyes. I was the beneficiary of years of care and attention.

Over the years, I have learned that women who were not "officially" mothers, biologically, possessed the attributes of a mother. I watched as they dispensed tenderness, in classrooms with students, with stepchildren children they took on through marriage or a child they adopted, toward a niece or nephew or the child of a neighbor. I came to learn that God wires women this way, and thank God, He does! To be a mother, a woman, is a demanding role one this man could never fill.

I believe by the love and mercy of God, mothers, will be reunited with their children one day in the kingdom of God. By the grace of God, misguided mothers led down the path of abortion will one day, finally, make peace with God while wrapping their arms around the child; they never had the blessing of experiencing in life here on earth.

Happy Mother's Day and God bless you,

Pastor Vin
